

Get Ready For College

Everyone has questions about college:

- What is the best way to finance my education?
- What steps can I take to prepare for college testing?
- Which colleges are the right fit for me?

Let Los Angeles Public Library help you with your college questions at the following workshop, which is open to both students and their families:

How To Pay For College

Tuesday, March 12, 2024 at 6 p.m.

Equip yourself with knowledge about how to pay for college in this crucial workshop. Explore the intricacies of various financial aid options, effective scholarship strategies and navigating the complex landscape of funding your or your student's education. Join us to ensure that you're well-prepared to make informed decisions, shaping a higher education journey without unnecessary financial burden.

Eagle Rock Branch
Los Angeles Public Library
5027 Caspar Ave.
(323) 258-8078

Contact: ptuck@lapl.org

Student Smart is made possible with support from The Duttonhaver Foundation and the Library Foundation of Los Angeles.

For ADA accommodations, please call (213) 228-7430 at least 72 hours prior to the event.

