

Ethnic Studies Class Syllabus (2021 Spring Semester)

WELCOME!

The Ethnic Studies course is designed to give students an introduction to the experiences of ethnic communities. It is also a compelling way to examine race, ethnicity, nationality, and culture in the United States. The course equips students with a critical lens to see the world and their place in it by understanding systems and power at the root of American society. Through the Ethnic Studies course, students are supported to discover and use their own power for the benefit of not only themselves, but also that of their community and society at large.

COURSE CONTENT

- ❖ We will be exploring the experiences of different ethnic groups in the United States. We will be looking at the themes of identity, power and privilege, oppression, and resistance to understand the struggles and accomplishments different ethnic groups faced as a minority in the country.

* In this class, we will be looking at and discussing tough subjects like race, oppression, privilege, and power systems within our country and culture. Please be respectful of different opinions.
